1. TRIP CANCELLATION COVERAGE

Trip Cancellation Coverage provides reimbursement for prepaid, non-refundable trip costs if you must cancel your trip due to a covered reason before your scheduled departure date.

1.1 Covered Reasons for Cancellation

- Illness, injury, or death of you, a traveling companion, or an immediate family member
- Severe weather conditions making your destination uninhabitable or inaccessible
- Natural disasters including earthquakes, hurricanes, floods, or wildfires at destination
- Terrorist attack or civil unrest at the destination occurring within 30 days of departure
- Involuntary job loss (not voluntary resignation) requiring you to cancel travel
- Employer requiring you to work on trip dates due to unforeseen business emergency
- Jury duty or mandatory court-ordered appearance during trip dates
- Your primary residence becomes uninhabitable due to fire, flood, or natural disaster
- Theft of passport or travel documents within 72 hours of departure
- Traffic accident on the way to departure point causing you to miss departure

1.2 Exclusions — Not Covered for Trip Cancellation

- Pre-existing medical conditions diagnosed or treated within 180 days of policy purchase (unless Pre-Existing Condition Waiver is purchased within 14 days of initial trip deposit)
- Change of mind, personal preference, or failure to obtain required travel documents (visa, passport)
- Financial default of a travel supplier unless the supplier is on our approved list
- Acts of war, declared or undeclared, between two or more nations
- Travel to destinations under a government-issued Level 4 Travel Advisory (Do Not Travel)

- Business or contractual obligations known at time of policy purchase
- Pregnancy — routine prenatal care, normal delivery, or elective procedures

1.3 How to File a Trip Cancellation Claim

You must notify us within 72 hours of the event causing cancellation. Submit the claim form along with: (a) proof of payment for non-refundable trip costs, (b) documentation of the covered reason (e.g., physician statement, death certificate, employer letter), and (c) cancellation confirmations from all travel suppliers showing amounts forfeited. Claims must be submitted within 90 days of the cancellation date.

2. EMERGENCY MEDICAL AND DENTAL COVERAGE

Emergency Medical Coverage pays for necessary medical treatment received while traveling outside your home country when the treatment is required due to a sudden, unexpected illness or accidental injury occurring during your covered trip.

2.1 Covered Medical Expenses

- Emergency hospitalization, surgery, and intensive care unit stays
- Physician and specialist consultation fees
- Prescription medications required for covered emergency condition
- Diagnostic tests including X-rays, MRI, CT scans, and laboratory work
- Emergency dental treatment for sudden onset of pain or accidental damage (up to $500)
- Ambulance transportation to nearest adequate medical facility
- Emergency medical evacuation to your home country hospital when medically necessary
- Repatriation of mortal remains to your home country in the event of death
- Return of dependent children to home country if you are hospitalized
- One round-trip economy airfare for a relative to accompany you if hospitalized 7+ days

2.2 Coverage Limits

Benefit	Limit
Emergency Medical Expenses	$500,000 per person per trip
Emergency Medical Evacuation	$1,000,000 per person per trip
Emergency Dental	$500 per person per trip
Return of Dependent Children	$10,000 per trip
Bedside Companion Travel	$1,500 round-trip economy
Repatriation of Remains	$25,000

2.3 Important Requirements

You MUST contact our 24/7 Emergency Assistance line at +1-800-TRAVEL-1 before seeking non-emergency treatment abroad. For life-threatening emergencies, seek treatment immediately and notify us within 48 hours. Failure to contact us may result in reduced or denied benefits. All treatment must be medically necessary as determined by a licensed physician.

3. BAGGAGE LOSS, DAMAGE AND DELAY COVERAGE

3.1 Baggage Loss and Theft

Provides reimbursement for the actual cash value (original price minus depreciation) of baggage and personal effects that are lost, stolen, or damaged during your covered trip.

- Total baggage coverage: $2,500 per person
- Single item limit: $500 per item (applies to each individual item)
- Electronics sub-limit: $1,000 total (cameras, laptops, tablets, phones)
- Jewelry and watches sub-limit: $500 total
- Sporting equipment: Requires separate Sports Equipment Rider
- Business equipment and samples: Not covered under this policy

3.2 Baggage Delay

If your checked baggage is delayed by a common carrier (airline, ship, train) for more than 12 hours from your scheduled arrival time, we will reimburse you up to $300 for the emergency purchase of essential clothing and toiletries. You must keep all receipts and obtain a written Property Irregularity Report from the carrier.

3.3 Items Excluded from Baggage Coverage

- Cash, currency, credit cards, debit cards, or prepaid cards
- Passports, visas, and other travel or identity documents
- Tickets, vouchers, or other travel documents
- Contact lenses, eyeglasses, or hearing aids
- Perishable goods, food, or beverages
- Animals or living plants
- Motor vehicles or watercraft
- Items shipped separately from your person
- Contraband or illegal items

4. TRAVEL DELAY AND MISSED CONNECTION

4.1 Travel Delay Coverage

If your trip is delayed for 6 or more hours due to a covered reason, we will reimburse your reasonable additional expenses for meals, accommodation, and local transportation up to $200 per day with a maximum benefit of $1,000.

- Common carrier delay (airline equipment failure, crew shortage, air traffic control)
- Severe weather conditions preventing safe travel
- Natural disaster causing closure of airport or transportation hub
- Security breach or evacuation at airport or transportation facility
- Hijacking or terrorist act affecting your common carrier

4.2 Missed Connection

If you miss a connecting flight, train, or cruise departure due to a covered travel delay, we will pay for additional transportation costs to reach your destination, and necessary hotel accommodation. Maximum benefit is $500 per incident. Delays must be documented in writing by the common carrier.

5. GENERAL POLICY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

5.1 Policy Eligibility

- Policy must be purchased prior to departure from your home country

- Coverage is available to residents of the United States and Canada
- Travelers must be under 85 years of age at time of purchase
- Maximum trip length covered under this policy: 180 consecutive days
- Coverage begins at midnight on the day after the purchase date
- Pre-existing condition waiver must be purchased within 14 days of first trip deposit
